Description

The properties comprise two sets of part single-storey, part two-storey mews workshops and offices dating from the late 1800s, it is believed, with a large three-storey terraced house fronting Farm Road, suitable for refurbishment or conversion.

Location

The mews properties are set between Lansdowne Place to the west and Farm Road to the east and just north of Western Road, in central Hove, close to local shopping and other facilities.

Development Considerations

The Mews could be redeveloped for residential use or extended and improved for continued workshop / office investment use and No. 12 Farm Road could be refurbished as a single house or may be suitable for conversion to several flats.
